December 2012

Bonjour! This year has been a very busy year at Mountain Top Ministries. Beth & Willem have hosted 22 teams this year! I, personally, have been on 6 of those teams! What a blessed year I have had! Thank you to all who made that possible for me!! This year I helped introduce a bar-coding system in the Gramothe Pharmacy. It was a huge project but well worth it. We can now know at any time what the pharmacy inventory is which will allow medicine orders to be made more efficiently. I am now doing the ordering for the pharmacy (with assistance from Dr. Marcia). I am enjoying the new challenge and am learning a lot about various medications.

One of the most exciting moments in Mt.Top's history took place this year with the first graduating class since the school began in 1999. Twelve young men graduated and some are now enrolling in a university to obtain a degree and experience something they didn't dare even dream possible! It is so exciting to talk to them and actually SEE the joy in their eyes. The glory goes to God for using Willem, Beth and Mountain Top Ministries to change Haiti-one village at a time!! If you would like to sponsor a student to attend a university, please contact me! I guarantee you-you will be blessed as you bless them!

I have also been able to represent Mt.Top Ministries at several area festivals this year. We set up a booth with Student Profiles offering opportunities to sponsor a child to go to school and have distributed many brochures and DVD's in order to raise awareness of the work God is doing in Haiti through MTM. We have also been able to sell a lot of the jewelry made in Haiti at Apparent Project and in Gramothe. All the money for this goes to the artisans who made the jewelry in order to help them support their families.

2012 has been a great year. A lot has been accomplished in Haiti and in the office in Terre Haute! I'm so grateful I can be a part of Mt.Top Ministries! Oh I can't forget to mention I also got to visit my son Sean and his girlfriend, Angie, in Colorado!!

I am now at 73% of my current financial goal. God continues to provide! Please contact me if you would like to be part of my financial support team and please visit my website at

Thanks to all my financial and prayer supporters for making this an awesome year! God Bless!

Have a blessed and Merry Christmas!
